

Dyed Fuel Assessments

During fiscal year 2008/2009, the Nebraska State Patrol performed 9,099 inspections. These inspections resulted in 91 assessments, generating $28,500 in penalties.

The amount of the penalty assessed by the State of Nebraska ranges from $250 to $2,500, depending upon the number of violations incurred over a five-year period. Each violation is also subject to an additional $1,000 or more penalty that can be issued by the Federal Internal Revenue Service.
